Ronald Eaton Giles was born in Hackensack, NJ on November 13th, 1947. The Son of blue collar parents Henry & Dolores (Arguello) Giles, he was the third of five children with an ethnic heritage of English-Irish, Native American, Mexican and Eastern European. Ronnie was raised in Lodi, NJ where he graduated High School from in 1965. He joined the US Army in October of 1965 & served in Vietnam (April 1966 to April 1967) as an Infantryman, Armored Personnel Carrier Driver, Ammo/Radio Man & Tunnel Rat with "A" Troop, 3/4 Cavalry, 25th Infantry Division, Cu Chi RVN. Upon discharge from the Army in 1968, Ronnie decided to pursue his life long dream of becoming an actor.

He studied with William Hickey, Alice Spivak and Catherine Sergovia at the famed Herbert Berghoff Studio in New York City, from 1968 to 1969. After working at a series of jobs, raising a family and pursuing his Acting career all at the same time over a 20-year period, he temporarily "retired" from Acting in 1988. During that same year, Ronnie rejoined the full time military, alternately serving with the New Jersey & Idaho Army National Guard. In 1996 he transferred to the full time Army Reserve based out of Staten Island, New York.

For the next ten years, he worked in a wide variety of assignments, including Human Resources Administration, Defense Finance and Accounting Service, Transportation, Waste, Fraud and Abuse and Equal Opportunity. Post 9-11 he simultaneously worked in assignments with local, state and federal Intelligence and Counter-Intelligence Agencies. During his last two years of service, Ronnie was attached to the Defense Intelligence Agency in Washington, D.C., and attained the Rank of Sergeant First Class/E-7. After an Army career that spanned over four decades, he is now officially retired from the military. He has two grown children and one Grandchild, and is back to pursuing his acting career full-time.

In his spare time he works as a volunteer Tour Guide at the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Holmdell, NJ AND is in a wonderful relationship with his childhood sweetheart, Caroline. To keep himself "grounded-in-reality", Ronnie enjoys hanging-out with the guys at Curioni's Pizza, in his hometown of Lodi. He is a life-member of the 3/4 Cavalry Association, VFW, Disabled American Veterans, the Little Ferry, NJ Chapter of the Vietnam Veterans of America, Screen Actors Guild, Actors Equity Association and the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists. His hero is his Father Henry Eaton Giles, whose name appears on the wall of The Museum of the American Indian, in Washington, D.C.

To date, Ronnie has appeared in over 50 Feature, Independent and Student films. He is a distant relative of the great Character Actor Leo Carrillo, who is best know to Baby Boomers for his role as "Poncho" in the early 1950's T.V. Series, "The Cisco Kid".
