

For consideration, submit a cover letter, noting your availability from September until Thanksgiving. Please include a pre-screen video with your submission. If we are interested, we will respond with a request for you to audition with sides provided from the script. Any in-person or video call auditions are planned to be announced for the month of July.

1st Submission Details:

Pre-Screen Video Recording with every application -- typically short (30-60 seconds); should only take talent a few minutes to record. Or include an initial video audition, whether its a reel, a short performance or just you introducing yourself. Production wants to see who you are, as yourself and a performer.

Pre-Screen Questions:

- Are you SAG-AFTRA? Are you non-union or eligible? Are you willing to work under a non-union agreement? Are you willing to work a few hours outside of Chicago?
- Tell us a bit about yourself, and tell us your height, location, and agency if you have one. Are you comfortable improvising? What makes you memorable as a performer? Optional, include your social media handles.
- Are you comfortable with practical blood/gore effects? Can you portray fear/panic convincingly? Are you comfortable filming overnight shoots? Have you played morally complex characters before?
