BIO

Christopher Stadulis was born and raised in Brooklyn, New York and presently lives in Queens. He was a former NY State Trooper only to leave to become a NYC Firefighter, which has enabled him to pursue his acting career. He has studied the martial art of Taekwon-Do for 20 years and has competed and won in over 40 tournaments around the country. He donated his bone marrow to save the life of 1-year-old suffering with Leukemia. The child is living back at home with his parents and doing well. He was also a big brother to an 8 year old whose father passed away on 9/11. The father was also a NYC Firefighter.

Christopher has had a great deal of success for being an actor for only 4 1/2 years, especially for someone without any representation.

In his latest role he will be playing a sniper in Denzel Washigton's upcoming blockbuster "Unstoppable", Directed by Tony Scott. Through Christopher's determination, magnetic personality, positive energy and talent, he has been fortunate to have auditioned for major films with Actors starring in them and Directors directing them such as, Rosario Dawson, Chris Pine, Russell Crowe, Elizabeth Banks, Tom Cruise, Cameron Diaz, Will Ferrell, Mark Wahlberg, Anne Hathaway, Jake Gyllenhaal, Nick Nolte, Liam Neeson, Christina Ricci, Tony Scott, Paul Haggis, Edward Zwick, James Mangold and M. Night Shyamalan.

He's had the pleasure of working with Alec Baldwin & Jennifer Aniston on the hit comedy show, "30 Rock", Christopher Meloni and Marishka Hargitay on "Law and Order:SVU", Michael (Boogie) Pinckney who has been Spike Lee's 2nd AD for over 10 years on Michael's upcoming feature film "Shotgun Poet" as a corrupt NYPD Officer & booked a role (resistor) on the new TV series "Kings" starring Ian McShane & Christopher Egan.

Christopher has had Day Player and Recurring U/5's on "One Life To Live", "All My Children" & "As The World Turns" among other notable works on various TV shows. He had the pleasure of meeting and being interview by Robert De Niro for a role in "The Good Shepherd", in which he was cast as an Under Cover CIA Agent. He appeared on 6 morning talk shows to promote the FDNY calendar in which he appeared in, and had a Principal role as a NYC Firefighter in a PSA with Harrison Ford.

The most challenging of roles was the Lead in a full length play entitled, "The Mission", where he played a gay convict serving 10 yrs for attempted murder. This role has really stretched him as an actor by opening himself up to take even greater risks.

He recently registered his full-length screenplay entitled "Forbidden", which is based on a true story. This heart-wrenching Drama/Romance contains compelling subject matter that will provoke thought worldwide. It's a modern day Romeo and Juliet.

Christopher has studied with Katherine Sergava and Ruth Berkowitz at HB Studio in NYC and continues to study with Mary T. Boyer at MTB Studio.
